This report is to be completed by the supervising teacher (see Professional Experience Handbook for completion dates). It is intended to indicate the preservice teacher's performance and highlight any shortfalls in professional application, which require improvement in the remaining weeks of the placement.

If a preservice teacher is considered 'Not Developed' in one or more sections and/or a school has concerns, an at-risk report must be completed instead. Please also make contact with the UQ Professional Experience Facilitator to initiate the at-risk of failure process. Please note that the at-risk process can be initiated at any point during the placement.
